Course Description

Disability insurance is both important and expensive, so it is critical to understand when you should obtain it, and how to tailor its provisions to your specific needs. In the Essentials of Disability Insurance course, we cover the circumstances under which you should (and should not) obtain this insurance, as well as the various policy components. We also address the factors impacting its cost, how to select both an insurance advisor and an insurer, and how to file a disability claim. In addition, we cover several disability insurance options that can keep your business running while you are disabled. In short, this course is designed to give you a thorough overview of the disability insurance concept.
